

U.S. PERFORMANCE DESTINATIONS:

Indianapolis

The 'Circle City's' vibrant downtown, music, art, super sports of all sorts invite you in! Known for that welcoming Hoosier hospitality, Indianapolis is home to the Bands of America's Grand Nationals. Bands of America's marching band shows offer positively life-changing experiences for the students, teachers, and parents of the bands who participate, as well as fans and spectators. Being a part of the Bands of America experience can be a rewarding experience and Music Travel Consultants can make your Bands of America marching band trip rewarding and memorable. Indianapolis is also known as host to the world's largest single-day sporting event, the Indianapolis 500, the Greatest Spectacle in Racing! Held over Memorial Day Weekend in May, the race has taken place for over 100 years. And, on the eve of each race, the event is kicked off with the IPL 500 Festival Parade. Are you students ready for the Music for All National Festival where you can perform in iconic venues such as Clowes Memorial Hall, Indiana Historical Society, Butler University, Warren Performing Arts Center, St. John the Evangelist Church, and the Palladium? Music for All National Festival provides a world-class educational performance experience for outstanding bands, orchestras, percussion ensembles, and chamber ensembles. Your group can have an educational performance trip with plenty of unique opportunities to choose from.
