

INTERNATIONAL PERFORMANCE DESTINATIONS:

Paris

In the heart of France, the majestic city of Paris blooms with vitality. This globally popular city is a center for art, fashion, and culture. Its 19th-century cityscape is home to landmarks such as the Eiffel Tower, the Gothic Notre-Dame cathedral, and some of the best cafe culture and designer boutiques along the Rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré. Paris is energized by numerous genres of music. You can experience anything from opera and symphonic music to musical theater, jazz, shake, the conventional Bal-musette. Driving melodic foundations include the Paris Opera, the Orchestre de Paris, and the Paris Conservatory, the first state music conservatory in Europe. The Cité de la Musique at La Villette is the home of the new Paris Symphony Hall, the Conservatory, a museum of musical instruments, and Le Zenith, a noteworthy scene for famous music. A considerable lot of the churches in Paris have heavenly noteworthy organs, and regularly host shows. The city is also known for its exceptional music halls. Paris performance trips offer a world-class experience for your young performers. Is your orchestra ready to perform at the Notre-Dame Cathedral, Château de Chambord, L'Église de Saint-Sulpice or Jardin du Luxembourg? Or is your choir ready to sing at the L'Église Saint-Germain-des-Prés, La Madeleine Church, Basilique de Nice, L'Église de Saint-Séverin? Maybe your students are ready for a meet and perform in an exchange concert with local ensembles? A Paris performance trip will give your group plenty of opportunities to learn, explore and showcase your musical talents.
