

U.S. PERFORMANCE DESTINATIONS:

Boston

Boston performance trips offer an idiosyncratic experience for your group that is overflowing with tradition and iconic opportunities. March down Broadway in the Boston legendary Thanksgiving Day Parade, captivate audiences with a performance at Faneuil Hall Marketplace or the Old North Church or your young performers will participate in a voice workshop, recital or Masterclass at the New England Conservatory of Music. Along with electrifying entertainment options, this historic city has everything for your Boston performance trip. Your performance group will put on the show of a lifetime at the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum. You can also include a master class and workshop. Afterwards, your students will enjoy other educational experiences like learning about the Boston Tea Party, visiting Harvard Museum of Natural History or attending a performance by the Boston Symphony Orchestra. This city is sure to be memorable.
