

INTERNATIONAL PERFORMANCE DESTINATIONS: OTTAWA

Ottawa presents student ensembles with a dynamic platform to showcase their talents in Canada's capital city, renowned for its rich cultural tapestry and electrifying arts scene. Groups have the opportunity to perform at esteemed venues such as the National Arts Centre, which hosts a variety of concerts and educational programs, and the University of Ottawa's School of Music, known for its diverse musical events featuring students, faculty, and guest artists. Additionally, the Algonquin Commons Theatre provides a 700-seat venue suitable for concerts and performances. For more intimate settings, Red Bird Live offers a dedicated space for live music and education. These venues not only provide performance opportunities but also immerse students in Ottawa's vibrant musical landscape.
