

INTERNATIONAL PERFORMANCE DESTINATIONS: SCOTLAND

Scotland performance trips offer a unique experience for your group. Are your students ready for a traditional Pipe Band trip to the highland games? Is your choir ready to sing at St. Giles' Cathedral or maybe do a joint concert with the St. Salvator's Chapel Choir in St. Andrews? Or maybe your ensemble is ready to perform in majestic such as the Royal Concert Hall or Theatre Royal? Scotland will give your group plenty of opportunities to learn, explore and showcase your musical talents. This country has everything for your Scotland performance trip. If you love the outdoors, ruggedly beautiful Scotland is made for you. It is the birthplace of golf, and renowned for its spirited citizens, castles, and festivals! Scotland is well-known for its unique and traditional music. Scots music has held its popularity when many traditional forms of music across the world have not. Many people associate Scottish music almost entirely with the Great Highland Bagpipe, which has long played an important part in Scottish music. There are also many other performance opportunities besides Bagpipes, so don't be shy!
