

U.S. PERFORMANCE DESTINATIONS:

Seattle

Seattle performance trips offer a unique experience for your group. Stimulate your young musicians' minds by attending a University of Washington clinic. Visit an interactive music museum that entertains and educates its visitors with high-tech exhibits of American popular music history, artifacts, hands-on equipment and live performances. Perform at the Bastyr University Chapel or Bainbridge Island. Give your group plenty of opportunities to learn, explore and showcase your musical talents with a performance trip to Seattle. Beautifully situated between Puget Sound and Lake Washington, the Emerald City is the USA's northwestern jewel. From well-known orchestra groups to grunge music, this destination has what it takes to make wonderful memories and give students those once-in-a-lifetime opportunities. Take a trip up the Space Needle, or spend the afternoon in the MOMA, your group will marvel in the artistic nature of this Pacific Northwest town.
